

Concordia Center for the Family, a Recognized Service Organization of the LCMS, is uniting homes and congregations in making lifelong disciples of Jesus by training called, commissioned and lay church leaders to be Family Discipleship Facilitators.

The basic training, with optional follow-up cohort support and professional coaching, will inspire and empower Facilitators to practice and teach family discipleship.

This proven biblical training is effective at reviving church leader mission zeal and guiding every type of family to grow and stay in Christian faith daily for life.

Who Should Attend: This training is designed for LCMS pastors and their lead team (lay, called and commissioned). Participants should be passionate about nurturing faith in home, congregation, school, and beyond.

What You'll Gain

Participants will:

- Explore the biblical foundation for Family Discipleship.
- Learn how homes and congregations can partner in growing faith.
- Receive simple tools and practical strategies for immediate use.
- Discover resources for diverse families and life stages.
- Develop personal and congregational action plans.
- Network with other leaders committed to strengthening families.
- Be invited to receive exclusive advanced training.
- Receive ongoing support through cohorts and coaching.

Cohorts:

- Cohorts are groups of 5-6 members created from trainings.
- Cohorts meet once a month for 90 minutes for 12 months.
- During a cohort meeting, members will review training principles, share ministry plans, and personally check in.
- Through cohorts, members receive ongoing training, encouragement for ministry, and accountability for growth.

The usual rate for foundational training and cohort support in 2027 is $700. However, thanks to South Wisconsin District support and other grant funds, pay only $150/person to attend the January 14-15, 2027 training at the SWD office (8100 W Capitol Dr in Milwaukee).
