

Do you share a concern—as a Christian—about . . .

- the baker, “Jack,” in Colorado whose business has been repeatedly harassed for his unwillingness to bake cakes for causes he views as “against his religion?”
- the Atlanta Fire Chief who was fired and cited for writing a book in which he expressed his Christian views on homosexual life choices?
- statistics from the Center for Disease Control that report the number of abortions in the U.S. has “fallen” since 2015 to just under 800,000 a year?

If you are among those who do, in fact, have concern about the status of your “religious liberties” in America, would you like to know more about how you can be more involved in making a difference?

By now, you are likely to be aware that The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod has chosen to ENCOURAGE, EDUCATE and ADVOCATE in matters related to the Christian’s involvement in matters of “religious liberty.”

About one year ago, the Lutheran Center for Religious Liberty (LCRL) was established in Washington, DC. Its work is guided by the Rev. Dr. Gregory Seltz, former “Lutheran Hour” Speaker. He continues to build relationships within the DC political community and far beyond. He’s been traveling as a speaker nationwide to a variety of LCMS churches and other LCMS-affiliated organizations. He prepares and distributes weekly Scripture-based devotionals and insightful materials related directly to matters of “religious liberty.”

The Lutheran Center for Religious Liberty (LCRL) is coming to Milwaukee. On SUNDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 31ST, Dr. Gregory Seltz will join hundreds of Christians who want to know more about how they can be personally engaged in advancing the Church’s involvement in matters of “religious freedom in Christ.”

The event will be held at the Marriott Milwaukee West (Waukesha), W231N1600 Corporate Ct. (junction of I-94 & County Road F). From 1:30-3:00, a social “SUNDAY CONVERSATION” time with Dr. Seltz and others will include sandwiches, snacks, beverages and desserts. From 3:00-5:00, Dr. Seltz and others will formally address the mission of the LCRL and his vision for how you and others are encouraged to be engaged.

You can ONLY REGISTER TO ATTEND THIS EVENT BY EMAIL. You will promptly receive a registration form that can be completed online and returned by email by connecting with or clicking

LCRLWI@lcms.org with the message, “PLEASE SEND ME A REGISTRATION FORM TO THE LCRL-MILWAUKEE EVENT FOR MARCH 31ST.”

The REGISTRATION DEADLINE IS MONDAY, MARCH 25TH. First, REGISTER TODAY and, secondly, URGE YOUR FRIENDS TO JOIN YOU by talking to them and/or sending them this message. Your willingness to engage Christian soldiers in our “two kingdoms” service is vital.
