

Early Childhood Teacher Event

Featuring: Angel Stoddard

Date: Fri. Aug. 7, 2020
8:30 am - 12:00 pm

Location:
South Wisconsin District Office
8100 W Capitol Dr, Milwaukee, WI 53222

Sign Up before July 31:

swd.lcms.org

Cost:
$25 In-person (limit of 25)
$25 Zoom (log-in info will be sent to you)

Join us for a morning filled with innovative ideas and inspiration from the talented Angel Stoddard! Seating is limited in person, but we encourage you to ZOOM with your colleagues! Ideas for virtual learning as well as social emotional learning will be introduced.

Angel Stoddard, MS is driven by a deep belief that leaders must be learners and aims to inspire the joy of learning in others. She strives to elevate the role leader's hold in ensuring quality programming. Her mission each day is to show up with passion and purpose, with curiosity and courage. In her role as full-time instructor for the University of Wisconsin – Milwaukee's Center for Early Childhood Professional Development and Leadership, Angel designs, develops and presents professional development opportunities for local, state and national audiences. Most recently, Angel was recognized as an Exchange Leader.

Certifications from the Early Childhood Committee &
3 CEU's will be presented upon completion.

Questions about the conference? Contact Michelle Pingel, michelle.pingel@splgrafton.org
Questions about registration? Contact Robin Mueller, mueller@swd.lcms.org, 414-292-0741